THE FORTUNE TELLER

Judging from the sale of seats for the coming engagement of "The Fortune Teller" at the Grand Sat urday, Nov. 11, matinee and night, that attraction will play to banner business. The company includes many well known comedians and singers, with a big beauty chorus and the production of scenery and costumes is one of the most elaborate seen in recent years. The excellent reports from other cities out of the ordinary are "The Broomstick Witches," "Mercenary Mary been playing has evidently stimulated interest in it here, as evidenced by the advance sale.

THE CAST OF CENTER. The expectation of the ordinary are "The Broomstick Witches," "Mercenary Mary Ann," "Peggy Brady, and "The Goo Goo Man," and those who like musical comedy fr its froth, spice, lightness and recody, will be charmed.

THE CAST OF "THE FORTUNE TELLER"

There are three comedians in the production of "The Fortune Teller." which will be seen at the Grand, matinee and night, Saturday, Nov. 11th. Fresco, the allet mbaster, is played by James McElhern, the well known eccentric comedian. Boris.

The old Count Berezowski is played by Hugh Cameron, the clever comedian who made a big hit on the Madison Square Roof Garden, New York. The balance of the organization is said to be made up of artists of reputation, headed by Grace Orr Myers in the title role.

A NEW YORK SHOW.

The brand new attraction "The Winning Girl," headed by the world famous artists, Charles Ross and Mabel Fenton, will positively apport to have got together a company which does full justice to Mr. Herbert's splendid score and Mr. Smith's excellent comedy. The organization is a large one, made up of artists of known ability and reputation and the company of the rest only one of the Mabel Fenton, will positively appear at the Grand in January.
